

SOGC Recommendations: COVID-19 and Pregnancy

* Decisions related to separation of mother and baby, breastfeeding, and delayed cord clamping should be made in collaboration with the patient and her family and take into consideration available evidence and patient's values.